

Janet, The Best Things In Life Are Free

(Duet with Luther Vandross)

Janet:

Boy, when you look at me
Do you judge me by my cover?
Ya got to be kiddin' me,
To think that I'm that kind of lover
I don't mean to disagree
Sorry you can't buy my kisses
Open your heart and see
True love comes for free

Luther:

I'm keepin' my heart open
Hopin' you won't stab me in it
'Cause I've been in love before,
And when I had to pay I didn't
I'll lose my sanity
Tryin' to measure your intentions
What do you want from me How much will it be?

Janet:

No more than you're willing to give 'cause
you won't pay nothin' for this good lovin'
It's for free

Luther:

And I won't make you promises
I'll just do all that I can to be your lover
'Cause I understand

Chorus:

The best things in life are free
Now that I've discovered what you mean to me
The best things in life are free
Now that we've found each other
The best things in life are free

Luther:

I know you are my baby
My one and only baby
You said it twice
I'll say it thrice
My baby baby baby

Janet:

I got so much love for you
And it's easy to give it
When I know you feel the same way too

Luther:

That's all I expect from you
Just do all that you can to be my lover
'cause I understand (I do)

Repeat Chorus

Janet:

No more than you're willing to give 'cause
you won't pay nothin' for this good lovin'
It's for free

Luther:

And I won't make you promises

You see I'm gonna be, I'm gonna be,
We're gonna be, I'm gonna be
The very best I can
To be your lover 'cause I understand

Repeat Chorus
