

Jann Arden, Ruby Red

You don't know me
You don't own me
You don't show me
That you love me like no other
You don't hold me
You don't know me
You don't love me anymore so
Go

You don't need me
You can't see me
You don't please me
You don't want me to be happy
You don't hear me
You don't feel me
You don't love me anymore so
Go

You don't know me
You never knew me baby
You never told me
That you loved me when we lied in bed
You'll miss me
You'll never kiss these
Lips of ruby sunset
Red
