Jann Arden, Where No One Knows Me

Got my suitcase Got my dog I'm packing up my life so far

Got my pictures Got some cash I'm getting out of here at last

Got my hands on the wheel, got my foot on the pedal Gonna drive til I drop, til the tires turn to metal Gonna sleep when I'm dead, gonna laugh like the devil Gonna find some place where no one knows me

Gonna stop when the last drop of gas turns to vapor Gonna ride til I can't even seem to remember Who I was when I left and it don't even matter Gonna find some place where no one knows me

Feel the sunburn on my skin I feel the wind whip through my grin

Took the rear-view mirror down I wrapped it in my wedding gown

Got my hands on the wheel, got my foot on the pedal Gonna drive til I drop, til the tires turn to metal Gonna sleep when I'm dead, gonna laugh like the devil Gonna find some place where no one knows me

Gonna stop when the last drop of gas turns to vapor Gonna ride til I can't even seem to remember Who I was when I left and it don't even matter Gonna find some place where no one knows me
