

Japan, The Other Side Of Life

Well it's been a long time
How should I feel?
What can I say?

With fantastic stories
You present yourself
In different ways

Some particular places
Remembered so well

Are hard to forget

We've travelled so far now
Then we were so young
Hard to impress

But she comes and goes
The other side of life
Sheltering only
The other side of life

These singular occasions
We seem to share
Stumble and fall

If you could remember
To wave a sign of life my way
