

Jaromir Nohavica, When They Took Me in the Army

When they took me in the army they shaved my head completely I looked as if I were a moron as all others around me me-me-me as all others around me They confined me to my barracks
And began to instruct me How to be a proper soldier, how to protect my country- try-try-try how to protect my country In the room after we had lights out I snuggled against the wall I blubbered out so nicely for my love who I recalled-called-called-called for my love who I recalled
When she came to see me in six months
I had a pneumonia bout In the hall someone always came so then nothing came about out-out-out so then nothing came about Do not cry, oh these eyes of mine Theres nothing else she could do A young girl needs to find love so love she helped herself toto-to-to so love she helped herself to It was then in front of the gate she met a big-star major He said that his quarters were just free so she let him go with her-her-her-her so she let him go with her Why take interest in a soldier when his girl has let him down Goodbye, Mr. Frankie rnek
This little songs over now-now-now-now How on earth did you like it?
Its nothing special anyhow
