

Jars Of Clay, Everything In Between

Must have thought I was so strong
Might have even thought
I was the one for this all along

But I can't even dream
Or imagine how it seems
To carry the weight of this crown

It's not as easy as it seems
To carry the weight of your dreams
Hiding in the shadows
It's not as easy as it seems
With Pharaoh and angel
And everything in between

Might have come to a similar conclusion
Only mixed up in the wake of confusion
But the glamour was mine
Though the power divine
To carry the weight of this crown

It's not as easy as it seems
To carry the weight of your dreams
Hiding in the shadows
It's not as easy as it seems
With Pharaoh and angel
And everything in between

And I don't know
Why I see your fire
Carry me over
Stay this way

It's not as easy as it seems
To carry the weight of your dreams
Hiding in the shadows
It's not as easy as it seems
With Pharaoh and angel

It's not as easy as it seems
To carry the weight of your dreams
Hiding in the shadows
With Pharaoh and angel
And everything in between
(Counting on hope)
