

Jars Of Clay, Fly

Be still let your hand melt into mine
The part of me that breathes when you breathe is losing time
I can't find the words to say I'll never say goodbye

(Chorus)
And I'll fly with you through the night
So you know I'm not letting go, I'm not letting go
Tears like rain fill up the sky
Oh my love I'm not letting go
I won't let you go

I saw a host of silent angels
Waiting on their own
Knowing that all the promises of faith
Come alive when you see home
Hold still and let your hand melt into mine

(Chorus)

(Bridge)
Shed your heart and your breath and your pain
And fly.....
Now you're alive

(Chorus)
I'm not letting go
I won't let you go
I'm not letting go
I won't let you go
