

Jasmine Guy, I Believe

i only see through you strong happiness in my life i want our perfect time together always forever

don't hope it won't last forever cause i know that we can be together for ever i know i know you really are the one for me i know cause i know and i can not know i only want you to love me no - one else this thing that we have oh i know is strong you can't help loving me and not saying it cause your scared to let people know your afraid they might judge you i know what it's like it s hard trust me i've been there done that can i ever get a chance with you just explain how you love me in what kind of way what is it that is making you strong about me is it real is it what you really can't help i just trying to know the truth out of you ohhh love what is it? what is that feeling we all can't help i know we've had emotions where we all feel lost but how i feel about u i know is true i want you to be the one what is it what is love?

i can't explain how feel about you it's just u i'm feeling shlow about you i care i wonder i hope about you i put my trust in you you say you love me then turn away why who cares what people think they just don't know that's why they judge you i believe the ones who think your crazy about loving that person they don't know never really felt what you felt i believe in you help me out here i'm telling you i love u nothing can stop me no one can stop our feelings for eachother
