

Jasmine Villegas, Happiest Girl Now

All that I'm say'in, is that you'll always be on time. And all that I'm pray'in for is you'll always be my life.
When you caught my eye, you took me by surprise. And my mind was yours to take. I see us together.
One hug and one kiss, and I'm the happiest girl now. Your hand and your lips and I'm the happiest girl now.
So many good times, and you'll always be by my side. The moment I'm frightened, the problem you will solve.
When you caught my eye, you took me by surprise. And my mind was yours to take. I see us together.
One hug and one kiss, and I'm the happiest girl now. Your hand and your lips and I'm the happiest girl now.
