

Jason Aldean, Do You Wish It Was Me

Do you wish it was me?

When the sun slowly chases the moon from the sky

And touches your face as you open your eyes

What are you thinking? Do you like what you see?

Is it all that you dreamed of or do you wish it was me?

Is the life that you chosen free from regret?

Or is what might have been just to hard to forget?

Has the glitter all faded? Do you get what you need?

Are you satisfied baby or do you wish it was me?

I know you did what you thought you should do

It was safe and secure so completely thought through

You sacrificed passion and abandoned your dreams

Baby, was it all worth it or do you wish it was me?

Does each kiss seem closer to the first or the last?

Is the fire still raging or has it burned down to ash?

Do the memories still haunt you? Do they beg and pled?

Are you satisfied baby or do you wish it was me?

Is the life that you chosen free from regrets?

Or is what might have been just to hard to forget?

Has the glitter all faded? Do you get what you need?

Are you satisfied baby or do you wish it was me?

Are you satisfied baby? mm...yeah

Or Do you wish it was me? [2x]

Oh, Do you wish it was me? [4x]
