

Jason Donovan, Too Many Broken Hearts

Last night you talked about leaving,
I said I can't let you go
It's not just emotional feeling
I need your body and soul
You give me one good reason to leave me
I'll give you ten good reasons to stay
You're the only one I believe in
I'll be hurt; I'll be hurt, if you walked away

(Chorus)

Too many broken hearts in the world
There's too many dreams can be broken in two
Too many broken hearts in the world
So I won't give up the fight for you
The world is full of lonely people
Who never held onto love

Last night I tried to reach you
But somehow it wasn't enough
So I said, can't you wait any longer
I'll give you all that a lover should give
It ain't my pride but my love that is stronger
I'll be hurt; I'll be hurt, if you walked away

(Repeat Chorus *2)

You give me one good reason to leave me
I'll give you ten good reasons to stay
You're the only one I believe in
I'll be hurt; I'll be hurt, if you walked away
(Repeat Chorus till fade)
