Javier, Crazy

"Crazy"

Hmmmmmmm.....hey yea hey...hoooooowhooo....baby,

(Verse 1)
Kind of like a summer's breeze,
you do exactly as you please,
drop a brother to his knees just for fun.
I think it was the first of May,
girl I can't forget the day,
right then and there I knew you were the one.
Do you think that possibly,
you could spend your life with me,
cuz girl this love is growing, and it's hotter than the sun.

(Chorus)

I get a little bit crazy baby, everytime you call my name my heart beats a little bit faster, after, you are in my arms again. You try to fight it, don't even try to hide it, emotions falling down like the rain, I can't find the words to explain it, ain't it, crazy how i fall, everytime you call my name.

(Verse 2)

It's kind of like a work of art, you shot an arrow through my heart, even though we're worlds apart I can't deny, it feels like your apart of me the finish and the start of me, girl you are the heart of me, and that's no lie, did I mention that I love you so, and I just want the world to know, if I could you know I would write your name across the sky.

(Chorus)

Crazy, crazy...
Evertime that your close to me,
I lose control of my sanity,
everynight, everyday, every word and you say,
girl do you know you put a spell on me.

(Chorus)

Crazy, baby Everytime you call my name, I don't know what to do, I'm so in love with you. baby
