

Jay Delano, Crazy

Last night at the club, many girls, lots of fun, her eyes crossed me
She was surely lookin' fine my body's tellin' me that I'm in need
But my mind is tellin' me that I should leave That's because I got girl at home, reason enough to leave this girl alone...
Doesn't it drive U crazy, oh.... makes you lose your mind
Doesn't it drive U crazy, oh.... these are just the things in life
A while ago a friend of mine, he had a girl his love for life
But he made a mistake, 'couse this girl took his heart to break
His body told him that he was in need, nut his mind was tellin' him should leave That's because he had a girl at home, but he couldn't leave that girl alone... these are the things that happen all the time
Why does it have to be this way
Relationships are supposed to be for two Why do we do the things we do
