

Jay Jay Johanson, Far away

Far away, once so close
But now youre far away
Youre still here with me
But not like yesterday, so far...
Far away, I hear you breathe
But youre so far away
Once so colourful
But now all turns to grey, so far...
Its oh so strange
When centimetres feels like miles
Seconds like hours
Now its true love has died
No more roads left to try, far away
Far away, long ago
When love was here to stay
Now its gone
It doesnt matter what we say, so far...
Its oh so strange
When centimetres feels like miles
Seconds like hours
Now its true love has died
No more roads left to try, far away
Every word is like a knife
But the silence cuts you twice
Far away, once so close
But now youre far away
Youre still here with me
But not like yesterday, so far...
