

Jay-Jay Johanson, It Hurts Me So

It hurts me so
To see you in that state you're in
With a tear on your chin
Tell me please what have I done

It hurts me so
To see you sitting by yourself
With your head in your hands
Tell me did I do you wrong

I wanna know
If I can say I'm sorry
Stop crying
Baby please don't worry
When I listen to your story
I'll softly dry your tears

It hurts me so
To hear you crying in your sleep
Tell me what do you keep Down inside I wanna know
