

Jay-Jay Johanson, Lychee

I'm so tired of losing
How am I supposed
To know when you're not talking
And feel when you don't show
The chain around your neck will strangle you soon
All that you still conceal
The gum that you chew will suffocate you
Secrets you should reveal

I who tried to focus on every need
Turned into an actor
When showing how I feel
The chain around your neck will strangle you soon
All that you still conceal
The gum that you chew will suffocate you
Secrets you should reveal

Such a big mistake
And don't you dare deny
It's hidden and forgotten
You didn't even try
The chain around your neck will strangle you soon
All that you still conceal
The gum that you chew will suffocate you
Secrets you should reveal
