

Jay Jay Johanson, So Tell the Girls

Ive been on the road
Ive been on vacation
Ive been travelling light to reach my final destination
Now Im coming home
So tell the girls that I am back in town
Youd better tell them to beware
Well they may go or they might try to hide
I follow on and Ill be there
So tell the girls that I am back in town
And if its true I do not know
That every girl around had missed me since
I decided to go
I could be your friend
I could be your stranger
I could be the one your mother said would be a danger
Now its up to you
