

Jay Sean, My own way

[verse 1]

First year passed me by I didn't get to speak my mind (no way) and they gave you everything put my integrity on the line

[bridge]

But now that it's 2 years later
I'm on the road heading in my direction
no one, nothing can stop me from my destiny, and where I wanna be

[chorus]

I chose to go my own way write my own history
go my own way (that's what I'm gonna do) I'm living for me in my own way you get what you see after all you still don't know me

[hook]

think you do, you don't know me
think you do, you don't show me

[verse 2]

now that everything is moving double time until 9 so I can get a foot in line but I used to work until 4 but it wasn't really me so I had to leave it all behind

[bridge]

But now that it's 2 years later
I'm on the road heading in my direction
no one, nothing can stop me from my destiny, and where I wanna be

[chorus]

[hook] x4

think you do, you don't know me
think you do, you don't show me
