

Jay Sean, Stolen (Remix)

Stolen (Remix)

Yeah..
Jay Sean
It's that syklone remix
Oh ohhh

You were my eyes when I couldn't see
You were my air when I couldn't breath
I think you knew what you meant to me
Baby...

You gave me strength when I was down
And kept my feet upon the ground
Baby and you promised be that you'd be around

Oh its crazy
I'm feeling all alone and lost my baby
You've stolen my heart
Girl you know it crazy
I wana make it up to you my lady
You've stolen my heart

Stolen
I gotta let you know you
Stolen
You've stolen my heart

When I was lost in my own world
Forgot your needs and wants girl
If only we could try once more baby
And when I sing the same old song
That I know my baby's gone
So I wanna know just where we went wrong

Girl all I need is your love
Why you tearing me apart
So when will we be alone
No darling I can't let you go
And if you leave I can't take
This feeling in my heart
Coz you mean so much to me

Girl its crazy
I'm feeling all alone and lost my baby
You've stolen my heart
Girl its crazy
I wanna make it up to you my lady
You've stolen my heart

Girl Its crazy
I'm feeling all alone and lost my baby,
You've stolen my heart
Girl its crazy
I wanna make it up to you my lady

Stolen
