[Verse 1]

Bak in da day wen i was just a little minor. Before my motha even spat me out of her vagini. I was swimmin in my daddys sak wiv a book in my hand wen i focused and spotted a mic being the crostay gland. I picked it up cautiously but it magnetized me supried me, I had to fight the power like the eyes of me. Memorised rhymmies but i kept loosin dem all, so i scribbled down on m mothas uterus wall.

So years went by and Jay Sean went down in history like superman my composition was a mystery was 2 and other kids were lernin the alphabet but i was revisin schemes to make the catch that i was out to get. Only 3 and alredy my rhymmies were out to win, my shit wud drop so hard that even the panties cudn't hold it in. Bribed by the geniuses by lyricists and scientists, Only 6 and i was lecturin my alliances,Even Einstein came to knock upon my door ya know.Pissed off cus i updated his formula, wen he sniffed the excellence and replaced the mc squared with mc Jay Sean change it even no one dares scared cus i went on to steal his nobel prize for being the youngest mother fuckin genius alive.

[Chorus]
