[Verse 1: Jay-Z]

Paparazzi spots me

In the lobby

Of my high-rise

I hide

Behind my shades

Cause the fame is blinding my eyes

My god

I know how Ozzie Oz

Once had felt when he was as high

As I have got

I have got

To make this stop

People often warn me

That the fame ain't for the vain if heart

It'll change those

Who they had love for you

Into strangers

When your fame starts

It's a chain reaction

Locomotion like when the train departs

Stranger

Things have happened

Rapping

Stacking

Platinum plaquin'

Born in Brooklyn got a place in Manhattan

Going back to Brooklyn

To escape the madness

When your friends is

Chris and Gwyneth

When your girl is more famous

Then you then is
Time to get all your windows tinted
Keep your eyes squinted
It's gon' flash any minute
The music biz is like musical chairs
Its about where you standing when the music stop spinning
In a
