

Jay-Z, MaNyfaCedGod (ft. James Blake)

Vacay the pain away
smoking the pain away drinking the look at all we been through since last August skating through the rumors like: Aw, shit!

Still come back Fucked up the red carpet Show how big your heart is On the run we took a hundred together more then the money it was the fact that we done it together healing in real time Song Cry to Resentment that was real crying Bonnie and Clyde things we hold it fdown hae we surrounded then? that'd be the real crime get through it got blessed times two with it new Bel-Air estate with 4 pools in it I told my hero
You gotta go home over vino Godfella, don't gamble with your life this ain't Casino Cpst him 2 mills plus the child support we'll get the money back but not the the child support It's getting too late we can't affors mistakes would broke me down had you took my child away I'm glad we found a way sexting the pain away Vacay the pain away

drinking the pain away
