

JC Chasez, Everything You Want

The shame is in the greed
No, no
The distance of being just out of reach
Is taking its effect on me
Why do I feel the needs of guilty tendencies
Eating away at who I used to want to be Caught up in the trapping zone
It's almost impossible to keep up
Camouflage
Band-aids for my insecurities
Swimming with sharks
I've become a killer
What about your heart?
I want the love of my life as of yesterday
Where does it stop?
The more you get, the more you want
Everything you want you just can't have it
Everything you want you just can't have it
Everything you want you just can't have it
Everything you want you just can't have it
There's always something else around the corner
The appetite is never fully satisfied
Even before you get you're on to the next
Consuming everything in sight
Living in a fantasy world
Trying to digest the fact having everything can make you happy
Work so hard
Fill the void of insecurity
Self absorbed
I've become the killer
Restless heart
What's left and who needs it anyway
Haunted by thoughts of
The more you get, the more you want
Everything you want you just can't have it
(You just can't, just can't have it all)
Everything you want you just can't have it
(You just can't, just can't have it all)
Everything you want you just can't have it
(Whoa...)
Everything you want you just can't have it
Whoa...
No-no-no no-no no-no-no
Slow down and take a look around you
The simple pleasures will astound you
The weight of everything move around you
Release the burden that you're bound to
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
(Oh, whoa...)
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
(It's eating away of yourself)
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
(No...)
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money

(Don't you want the money, money)
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
Everything you want you just can't have it
(You just can't, just can't have it all)
Everything you want you just can't have it
(You just can't, just can't have it all)
Everything you want you just can't have it
(No no-no, no-no-no no-no-no)
Everything you want you just can't have it
Everything you want you just can't have it
(Oh, you just can't, just can't have it all)
Everything you want you just can't have it
(Oh no, ooh oh)
Everything you want you just can't have it
(No no-no, no-no-no no-no-no)
Everything you want you just can't have it
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
(Oh no, ooh oh)
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
(Everything you want you just can't have it)
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
(Everything you want you just can't have it)
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
Don't you want it, want it
Want the money, money
