

JC Chasez, Until Yesterday

I found a letter on my dresser last night
About a baby on the way
It made me suspicious of another guy 'cause you couldn't tell me to my face
And so I asked to find out if I was right
That's when your eyes filled up with rage
Now nine months go by - the baby's not my blood type
Look at the mess you've made

You know I love you so much
Girl I would never hurt you

But if you play with fire
Then you'll get burned
When will you learn
Now it's your turn

Remember all the lies you sold me
You made me feel so sad and lonely
Now your fairy tale's unfolding
And nothing left to say
'Cause I loved you all the way
Until yesterday
Oh until yesterday

Damn
Well can you help me understand
Why you would keep me while you're sexin' with another man
Or was it just a one night stand
Or was it something far more grand
Than what we had 'cause

You know I love you so much
I know your daddy taught you better

But if you play with fire
Then you'll get burned
When will you learn?
Now it's your turn

Remember all the lies you sold me
You made me feel so sad and lonely
Now you're fairy tale's unfolding
Nothing left to say
'Cause I loved you all the way
Until yesterday

You know I love you so much
Oh
Your daddy should have taught you better

But if you play with fire
Then you'll get burned
When will you learn
Now it's your turn

Remember all the lies you sold me
You made me feel so sad and lonely
Now your fairy tale's unfolding
Nothing left to say oh

If you play with fire
Then you'll get burned

When will you learn
Now its your turn

Remember all the lies you sold me
You made me feel so sad and lonely
Now your fairy tale's unfolding
'Cause I loved you all the way

I loved you all the way until yesterday

Remember all the lies you sold me
You made me feel so sad and lonely
Now your fairy tale's unfolding
'Cause I loved you all the way

All the way until yesterday
