

Jean Shepard, Day To Day (Tear To Tear)

All my friends told me someday you'd leave me
But your sweet words of love were all that I could hear
It's so hard realizing you deceive me now I just live from day to day tear to tear
I had planned on your love last thing a lifetime
Never dreaming the end could be so near
Now it looks like I've smiled for my last time
And I just live from day to day tear to tear
Day to day tear to tear that's how it goes
You stand by watching as my heartache grows
There's no need in me planning on tomorrow
The end could come any time without you near
I don't see how I can make it through this sorrow
So I just live from day to day tear to tear
Yes I just live from day to day tear to tear
