

Jean Shepard, Look What I've Got

They said the boy that loved me would win the world some day
But I was young and foolish and I just couldn't wait
A rich man offered me the moon and all the stars above
Now I've got all a girl could want everything but love
Look what I've got and look what it cost look what I've got but look what I lost
[steel]
My friends think I'm so happy the girls all envy me
I've got all a girl could want nothing that she needs
You can't replace a loving heart with pretty clothes and pearls
And as I look around me I'm the loneliest of girls
Look what I've got and look what it cost look what I've got but look what I lost
