

Jean Shepard, True Love's A Blessing

True love's a blessing true love's a wonderful blessing
True love's a blessing wait and see
When you'll find a right boy you'll fill your heart with joy
True love's a blessing yes siree

Some folks marry for money some make love a game
Some folks use their love as stepping stones to fame
There are many kinds of love in this world you see
And I'm happy that you feel for a girl like me
True love's a blessing...

Some folks take their love too casually they flirt
Some folks use their love to break a heart to hurt
There are many kinds of love to be found that's true
But there's no love like a love I found when I found you
True love's a blessing...
True love's a blessing...
