

Jean Shepard, You Can't Break The Chains Of Love

Though we're apart you'll always have my heart

You can't break the chains of love dear

Wherever you go my heart will always know you can't break the chains of love

For I will always love you I swear by the stars up above

I'll be your slave till I am in my grave you can't break the chains of love

[ guitar ]

For I will always love you...
