

Jeanette, Don't Say Good Night

Down at the seaside we danced in the sand
I fell in love with this good looking man
We drank red wine in a little cafe
And when he kissed me good night I said stay stay
stay

Don't say good night
To a lady of spain
Love her
lover
Don't say good night
You should kiss her again
Love her
lover

Please don't say good night
Don't say good night yet
If you leave me now
There won't be any other night
you know
Don't put an end to a love
That's just started growin'

Don't say good night
To a lady of spain . . .

Maybe it was just an evening's romance
Or I was charmed by the touch of his hands
I've never known such a feeling before Lover don't go and please kiss me once more more

Don't say good night
To a lady of spain . . .

Don't you say good night
And share these precious moments of love
Look into my eyes
Feel my trembling hands
And stay stay with me

Don't say good night
To a lady of spain . . .

Don't say good night
To a lady of spain . . .
