

Jeannie Ortega, Future Is Clear

Yeah
Oh yeah

Chorus:
The future is clear
I want you to be my boyfriend
Whenever you're here, the clouds disappear
And the future is clear
Who's cuter than you
Yeah I wanna be your girlfriend
Whatever you do, I'm keeping you here
Cause the future is clear

Some things are meant to be
Sometimes they work out perfectly
Take a chance on you and me
They could happen
Can't know what tomorrow is
Is this a chance you wanna miss
I've been getting good at this
And the future is clear

Chorus

Things are tricky when you start
It is always the hardest part
You hear your head and not your heart
Won't you listen
I'm someone who knows
This is how the story goes
I see the aging cause it shows
Cause the future is here

Chorus

I know something that you don't
Tomorrows almost here
Cause the future
Cause the future is clear

Oh yeah
Yeah

Chorus 2x
