

Jebediah, Bosco

Hey Bosco, what did you do to make so many men hate you?
You think you're right; they say you're wrong.
They've been hassling you for way too long.

Going out, it made you a star.
Going out but going too far.
Going out, expressing your point of view.

Hey Bosco, what did you do to make so many cops want you?
They think they're right; you say they're wrong.
They've been hassling you for way too long.

Going out, it made you a star.
Going out but going too far.
Going out, expressing your point of view.
Point of view.

Well I don't want to fake it and I know you're gonna make it.
But you don't have to take it on.
