

Jebediah, In Orbit

You don't wanna know, the truth will only hurt you
And I don't wanna go, back down that road I hate to
I've been trying so long to deal with what I've done
You say you want a song, well here you go have this one

Chorus:

I'm a boy with an endless lie
View the world through my bad black eyes
But it's alright, if it's alright

Don't mean to be mean, okay go on just say it
Exactly what I've done, you're right and don't I know it
It's immaturity, I can't wash clean my conscience
The truth is killing me, could it make any difference?

Chorus

I'm a boy with an endless lie (but it's alright)
