

Jebediah, Nothing Lasts Forever

There will never be an ending
There's always change
So all those things that you're defending
Have been rearranged
But it's so hard to talk to you
You're never there
With my adjusted way of thinking
I shouldn't care

Now I know that nothing lasts forever
So long
Everythings gonna be that much better

Now I know that nothing lasts forever
Everythings gonna be that much better
You're the one that should be saying sorry
All you ever do is make me want to talk to you...

And these are moments I can't get over
So how can you
Ever look over your shoulder
Find something new
Or are you playing mass defence
With armour on
You can only take the beatings
Don't prove me wrong

Now I know that nothing lasts forever
So long
Everythings gonna be that much better

Now I know that nothing lasts forever
Everythings gonna be that much better
You're the one that should be saying sorry
All you ever do is make me want to talk to you, oh...
Why wont you talk to me? Oh...

And thats why
When we talk about the past
I could sit with you for hours.
And thats why I say
That we'll never be the same
But I can't explain forever
Nothing ever stays the same
Feelings just get in the way
Every hour of every day
Then theres no more left to say
You can watch your colours fade
But you cant sit still forever
No you cant sit still forever...
No you can't sit still....

Now I know that nothing lasts forever
Everythings gonna be that much better
You're the one that should be saying sorry
All you ever do is make me want to talk to you, oh...
Why won't you talk to me? Oh...
All you ever do is make me want to talk to you, oh...
Why won't you talk to me? Oh...
