

Jebediah, Run Of The Company

Believe what you will they'll take your honesty still Honoured Chairman of the Board picking the scraps off the floor
Desperate for more it's corporate law when spirits fall
They'll own us all.
It's all that we know, in everything that we say
It's everyday of our lives, born to a loss of control (control)

I dream daily, humans are commodities
One day you'll see, run of the company

You don't realise till it's in front of your eyes
When your inside of the plan
Answering all to the man
