

Jeff Anderson, I Don't Belong Here

I keep feeling hopeless
But your grace keeps pouring into my heart.
This day cant last forever.
Tomorrow will come but when does it start.
Why do the bad things
Blind our eyes so well never see the truth.
The truth is youre calling
Not for help just to fall in love with you.
I will never forget the day that you showed me
That I was never meant for this place
I dont belong here. Im made for heaven.
You have not cursed me.
Im only clean from the fire that I walk through.
You only loved me.
Though you slay me I will trust in you.
I will never forget the day that you showed me
That I was never meant for this place
I dont belong here.
I will never forget the day that you showed me
That I was never meant for this place
I dont belong here. Im made for heaven.
