

Jeff Anderson, So Alive

Im so alive because you know me by name,
And thats all I need to hear.
Your grace falls like rain and you never change
Even when I choose to disappear.
What joy fills my life
When Im walking hand in hand with you.
My voice is crying out to know your perfect heart of truth. Youre always near.
I cant believe the way your eyes look at me.
The feelings deeper than the sea.
You tell me come as I am and youll love me the same what a beautiful mystery.
What joy fills my life
When Im walking hand in hand with you.
My voice is crying out to know your perfect heart of truth.
Ive been waiting all my life to find this place in you.
The place my heart is satisfied to know your love is true.
What joy fills my life
When Im walking hand in hand with you.
My voice is crying out to know your perfect heart of truth.
Youre always near.
