

Jeff Bates, Once More Second Chance

The days are endlessly dreary
The nights are painfully long
My pillow is drenched with tears
I know that I've done you wrong

(Chorus) One more second chance,
One more second try
Once more second hope,
to touch your heart and mind
one more second chance,
one more second try,
one more second hope to treat you right this time.

Just give me one more second chance Just give me one more second try
Just let me prove to you that I love you I beg you, Baby, Don't make my cry.

(chorus)

One more chance to show you some tenderness
One more chance to show you my faithfulness
One more chance to hold and caress you
One more chance, (spoken) > I WON'T LAST WITHOUT YOU

(Chorus)
