

Jeff Bates, Wings Of Mama's Prayers

I've been to chuch on sundays and I've been in jail I've put my family through living hell and I've been a heavy cross to bare on the wings of mama's prayers

I spent her last dollar on something bad for me I finally hit rock bottom couldn't get up on my knees but the strength came to lift me up from there
on the wings of mama's prayers

I see her by the bed with her Bible opened wide looking up at Heaven with tears in her eyes
She knew when I was troubled she knew when I was scared
And I found salvation on the wings of mama's prayers

I was lost in the darkness searching for the end but the light of mama's love led me back again and if I've got a place in Heaven I'll get there on the wings of mama's prayers

I see her by the bed with her Bible opened wide
looking up at Heaven with tears in her eyes
she knew when I was troubled she knew when I was scared
and I found salvation on the wings of mama's prayers

yeah I'm still holding on the wings of mama's prayers
