

Jeff Deyo, As I Lift You Up

I'm reaching up
I'm reaching out
To be with You, Lord
I wanna be with You now
There's nothing quite like
Your voice in my ear
It's gentle and soft
You know it's honest and real

I open my hands
And I open my heart

CHORUS

As I lift You up from the earth
Won't You draw me in Won't You pull me close
As I lift Your name to the Heavens
Won't You call me home
Won't You call everyone to Your throne
Won't You draw everyone to Your throne

If it is true
Then how can it be
The thing You want most
From me is intimacy
I try in my power
To give you enough
But first what You ask
Is that I give You my love

Bridge

Come make me all that You want me to be
My praises working that all would believe
Change us for all of eternity
