

Jeff Deyo, Take Me To You

How long must we wait
To see your face
How long must we stand here
Calling out for you

How far is heaven
From the earth
How far is the distance
From my heart to yours

Right now, take me away from here
Away from the cares of this world
Right here, come sweep me off my feet
Into your open arms

Take me to you, Lord
Take me to you, Lord
Take me, take me
Take me to you, Lord

How loud must we cry
For you to come
How still must we be
To know your presence
