

Jeff Deyo, We Come To Your Throne With Weeping

We come to your throne with weeping
We come to your throne with sorrow and shame
We come to your throne with weeping
We come

We come to your throne with mourning
We come to your throne with desperate hearts
We come to your throne with mourning
We come

We come to you
We cry out for mercy
And we turn from our sins
We come to you
Humble and broken
We fall on our knees
We come to you
We come

We come to your throne forgiven
We come to your throne by the blood of the Lamb
We come to your throne forgiven
We come

We come to you
We thank you for mercy
And the freedom to live

We come to you
Singing and shouting
We come to you
We come
