

Jeff Deyo, You Are Good

Some would say that you cannot be found and some would say that you are far away
but I know you're the god who lives in me and I know you will always have my heart

'Cause you are good and your love endores forever
You are good
and your love endores forever
You are good
and your love endores forever
You are good
you are good

and some would say that you are far away
but I know you're the god who lives in me

you are the only one
you are the one that I desire
you are the only one my king

you are the only one
you are the one that I desire
you are the only one my king

(chorus 2X's)

You are the only one
You are the one that I desire

You are the only one
You are the one that I desire
