

Jeff Hanson, Hiding Behind the Moon

Well if I were you I'd be wiser
To the sounds that make you up
And if only time was longer
I'd be gone
And if what you say is the answer
And for all you know it's true
Maybe I sleep too long
Or sometimes speak too soon

And remember the sun don't shine
And remember the sky's not blue
And if only I was you
I'd be right along here hiding behind the moon

Well I should have known you'd be leaving
Just as soon as you got here
And in time I'll fall around you
And disappear
And the thought of a day left to wander
In a time with eyes on me
Maybe I say too much
But with that we'll disagree
