

Jeff Healey, Feel Better

When your world is cold, and your day seem to drag on, forever, feel like your soul were sold, for nothing, for nothing and you never, felt such loneliness, or emptiness, and your old friend so hard to face, that's when you come to me, you come to me, when you need a safe embrace, n' like a fool I give it up for you, there's nothing else I can do,

If it make's it feel better, then tell me, tell me more lies,
If it make's it feel better then use me for love in disguise,
If it make's it feel better, when you lost your way, and you're tired, of what you've become,

and empty shell, when nothing dwells, and you dyin, n' feeling numb, well you decide that you call on me, cuz you know I'm always free,

If it make's it feel better, then tell me, tell me more lies,
If it make's it feel better, then use me for love in disguise,
If it make's it feel better

Ho you know you burned me many times before, still come back for more

If it make's it feel better,
c'mon tell me, tell me more lies,
If it make's it feel better,
you can use me for love in disguise,
If it make's it feel better,
better, better yeeh,
n' if it make's it feel better
