

Jeff Healey, Someday, Someway

Well, it's important that you understand me,
Appreciate my point of view
Some date and time I'm gonna make you mine,
I ain't never givin' up on you
So don't keep tellin' me,
You're just not ready to give your love away.

Someday someday
Somebody's gonna love you
Someday someday
What will be will be
Someday someday
Now, you open your eyes
And you'll see, baby, it's me.

Well I heard a like a rollin' thunder,
And I felt like a motherless son
Steady and strong I still hold on,
Waiting for my chance to come.

Someday someday
Somebody's gonna love you
Someday someday
What will be will be
Someday someday
Now, you open your eyes
And you'll see, baby, it's me.

So, don't keep tellin me
You're just not ready to give your love away.
So, don't keep tellin me
You're just not ready to give your love away.

So, don't keep tellin me
You're just not ready to give your love away
So, don't keep tellin me
You're just not ready to give your love away.

Someday someday
Somebody's gonna love you
Someday someday
What will be will be
Someday someday
Now, you open your eyes
And you'll see, baby, it's me.

Someday someday
Somebody's gonna love you
Someday someday
What will be will be
Someday someday
Now, you open your eyes
And you'll see, baby, it's me.

Someday someday (12x)
