

Jeff Lynne, Nobody Home

I can tell by the way
there aint no lights in the windows
And by the way your curtains hang Yeah, I know which way the wind blows

I said no, I said no, I said no, nobody home
nobody home, nobody home

You went away, what a heavy load
You must have took it with you Down and out, to no thanks to boat
But no one can get ya

I said no, I said no, I said no, ain't nobody home
nobody home, nobody home

I said nobody, nobody home

From the way that you act
I guess you haven't been there
By the look in your eyes
There's nobody been there

I said no, I said no, I said no, nobody home
nobody home, nobody home

I said nobody, nobody, nobody home
nobody home, nobody home

I said no, I said no, I said no no no, nobody home
nobody home, nobody home

I said nobody, nobody home
nobody home, nobody home

Aint nobody home, nobody home,
Nobody home
Nobody home
Nobody home
Nobody home
