Jefferson Starship, Find Your Way Back

You know, it's been a long, long road Since I packed up and left on my own And I carry a heavy load Just trying get back to her heart

I sure ain't got no home I seem to find love where I ramble And when it's time to go I hear that voice again, saying

Find your way back Find your way back to her heart Find your way back Find your way back to her heart

Leave a message with the rain You can find me where the wind blows The snow across the pain And the frost upon the heart

(You got no place to be Still you wonder where you're going) And why I had to leave I hear a voice, it says to me

Find your way back
Find your way back to her heart
Find your way back
Find your way back to her heart
To her heart
C'mon

I know it's too late now But, I wish I could go back in time And start all over somehow And get it right from the start

Find your way back Find your way back to her heart Find your way back Find your way back to her heart

Find your way back (find your way back)
Find your way back
Find your way back (find your way back)
Find your way back
Find your way back (find your way back)
Find your way back
Find your way back (find your way back)
Find your way back
