

Jefferson Starship, Love Too Good

Oooah spread your wings you've been too long in the cage feeling the rage of abuses oh, i'm sorry.

I've opened the door
I've set you free
but can't you see that I'm no good I'm sorry

Sorry
baby I still love ya
Sorry
and I worry about it
Sorry
the hurt I put on you
you can do without it

Love too good
you gotta
love too good
you gotta
love too good
for a woman like me, baby

Take to the wind
here there's too much pain over and over again
I'll hurt you
I'm sorry

I've opened the door
and I'll set you free but you still can't see that I'm no good I'm sorry, yeah
sorry
baby, I still love ya
sorry
and I worry about it
sorry
the hurt I put on you

Love too good
you gotta
love too good
you gotta
love too good
for a woman like me
for a woman like me, baby
