

Jefferson Starship, Song To The The Sun: Don't Let It Rain

Moon, I'll get it!
You be the earth, and I'll be the sky,
And we could sail to the top of the world.
Be my love, won't you be my life, And we could fly to the top of the world.
Now, won't you think about it now?
Now, make it realer now you seem to feel her now,
And let it roll.
Moon, I'll get it!
Moon, I'll get it!
There's a curtain high
In the corner of the sky;
Someone's behind it, I don't know who.
It might be love, but I'm not quite certain
The lady isn't certain, too.
Don't let it rain on me tonight.
Don't let it rain,
I need to feel the sun again.
Oh baby, please don't let it rain.
Rain.
Moon, I'll get it!
Moon, I'll get it!
Moon, I'll get it!
Childhood's end, (Grace: Childhood's end), childhood's end, Oh,
There are children being born,
Who will amaze you with their minds.
Leave them be, help them grow, and watch them fly.
You will see things in these years,
That will ease all your fears,
Help you build a bridge to the sky.
We are not alone.
We are not alone.
And the sky, tastes like a ship tonight.
We are not alone.
(Break)
Moon, I'll get it!
Moon, I'll get it!
La la la la la la la la la la la
La la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la la la
La la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la la la
La la la la la la
Don't let it rain on me tonight,
Don't let it rain.
I need to feel the sun again,
Oh baby, please don't let it rain.
Woh, Don't let it rain.
Don't let it rain.
I think I feel the sun again.
Oh baby, please don't let it rain.
Don't let it,
Don't let it,
Oh, baby, please don't let it rain.
Ohhhh.
