

Jeffries Fan Club, Waste Of Time

Said you wouldn't leave but you couldn't stay
Then you ran away
I haven't seen you for a while
Ever since the day you left
I was so sad wished I was dead
I haven't smiled for a while
When I heard you were on your way
Back to me and back to stay
I couldn't wait to see your smile
But things have changed you're not the same
And I'd rather not play that game
I don't wanna see you for a while Back when she was fine
That's when she was mine
She used to be hot but now she's not
And I'd rather not waste my time
I don't care what you got inside
I'm not interested in your mind
It's what you look like by my side
And I don't care baby what you say
You're not gonna get your way
My love for you has died
Won't you stay away from me
You're gonna go crazy
I can see it in your eyes
I can hear every word you say
How you threw my heart away
I can hear every time you lie
